

Lady Lisa Fambro's journey began in Camden, NJ, where she was born and raised. She later relocated to Atlanta, GA, and eventually moved to Rockford, IL. Her decision to accept salvation at the young age of 22 was followed by her commitment to serving alongside her husband in ministry for over 20 years. Later, she demonstrated her dedication to spreading the message of healing, deliverance, and restoration.

As a co-host of "Happy Times with a Gospel View" on Soarradio.com for eight years, Lisa continues to use her platform to uplift and inspire others with the message of Christ. Lady Lisa believes in striving for excellence and positively impacting each aspect of her life. She is dedicated to serving her spouse, family, community, and colleagues with passion and integrity. By prioritizing her commitments and staying true to her values, she can successfully navigate the challenges of balancing her roles in marriage, ministry, and the marketplace.

Her dedication and hard work have not gone unnoticed by her peers and the community. Being nominated for Woman Leader of the Year in the business category and New Rising Business Woman is a testament to her exceptional leadership skills and entrepreneurial spirit. Her success as a businesswoman and owner of the Open Arms Early Learning Childcare Center reflects her passion for nurturing and educating young minds. With a Bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education and Interdisciplinary Studies, Lisa's expertise and experience in this field have undoubtedly contributed to the success of her childcare center. Lisa's entrepreneurial spirit is further exemplified by her authorship of the book "Favor without Limits," which provides inspiration and encouragement for readers seeking to experience God's word in action and favor in their lives.

Lady Lisa Fambro's commitment to education and community involvement is a cornerstone of her life. Her role on many boards of directors is a testament to her dedication to education, empowerment, equity, and her community. Residing in Roscoe, IL, with her husband, Pastor James Fambro, and their three sons, Lisa's family and her mission to serve God's people are the driving forces behind her actions. Her unwavering faith and compassion are evident in her determination to bring healing, restoration, and hope to those in need. Lady Lisa Fambro's mandate is to teach, preach, and serve God's people until the broken are restored, the hurting is healed, and barren wombs are satisfied.
